

HOUSE OF THE WEEK

Victorian Style with Verandas

On the exterior of this striking home, details include decorative trim and a front porch (expanded from the plan in the photographed version of the home). Inside, abundant windows let light pour into the living spaces, like the curving breakfast nook and the study. The kitchen features a pass-through to the family room, making it easy to serve up snacks. All four bedrooms include walk-in closets, and bedroom two also includes a bright alcove and a private bath that makes the space perfect for an older child or a guest. Don't miss the master suite's bathtub bay.

All those bay windows also create light-filled living spaces inside, from the study to the master suite's bathroom.
