

HOUSE OF THE WEEK

Old-Fashioned Curb Appeal

This sweet cottage gives you old-fashioned curb appeal and a very modern, open layout inside. The island kitchen flows into the living room, so it's easy to hang out with family and friends while putting the finishing touches on dinner. All the bedrooms reside to the right side of the floor plan (away from the main living areas) for extra privacy. The master suite includes two large closets and a five-piece bathroom. A spacious laundry room keeps chaos at bay, while a rear patio makes relaxing easy.

Large windows, shutters, a cute front porch, and mixed siding deliver classic curb appeal to this design.
