HOUSE OF THE WEEK

Luxurious Home with Stylish Details

An easygoing flow between the island kitchen and great room makes it easy to host and entertain, while a formal dining room is great for formal occasions.

With most of the living spaces on one level, this modern luxury home will work well long into the future (making for easier aging in place). The great room showcases disappearing walls that make the interior spaces flow out to the spacious solana and the outdoor kitchen. Every bedroom is a suite, with the master suite boasting an impressive walk-through shower.
